

COOL stands for Champion of One Lamb...

We are so thrilled at how our COOL members support One Lamb through a variety of ways – from monthly donations, one time gifts, academic sponsorships, designated donations, gifts in kind, to volunteering, prayer and encouragement.

Here are three recent COOL members that gave to One Lamb through enterprise...

Julius Dickens of Dream Town Realty™ recently pledged to donate a portion of each of his real estate closings to One Lamb. As parents of beautiful twin girls, Dickens and his wife Kim make the safety of their kids a No. 1 priority. "We are heartbroken by the reality that many children have been failed on many levels," added Dickens. "We want to support those whose mission is to bring these precious children back to an environment of safety and care. We hope to convince others to join this cause."

Provision Cycling got to hear about One Lamb back in April and felt God leading them to participate in our mission of providing hope and safety for the kids in our community. They were faithful to follow through by donating $3,000 from their 2nd quarter earnings.

Provision Cycling is a racing-bicycle-oriented distributor with exceptional customer service and a remarkable commitment to being a difference maker in this world.

Thank you Provision Cycling for making a big difference to the world of our girls – so COOL!

Sweet Blessings

Three lovely teens Shiru, Jayna and Sarah, held a bake sale and all profits were dedicated to bringing joy to our One Lamb girls.

They made delicious brownies, oatmeal cookies and chocolate chip cookies that quickly sold out.

They then delivered the proceeds in person to our Hearthome – sh11,000 ($110). How sweet is that!

Invitation to be COOL (COOL = Champion of One Lamb)

It costs $100 per month to keep one girl free from sexual exploitation – providing education, counselling, food and shelter.

To provide for 10 girls for a whole year, we are looking for 120 new partners to give $10 a month. Will you join us? It's easy to set up a recurring monthly donation through Paypal on our Website Giving Page. Go to Paypal and use give@onelamb.org

Thank you for being one of our COOL members and being someone's hero today!
